Resolutions.

Nogales, Arizona, Oct. 27th 1899. We your committee appointed to draft resolutions of condolence upon the death of brother P. B. Doyle, submit the following:

WHEREAS It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from this life our esteemed brother, P. B. Doyle, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we, the members of Nogales Lodge, K. of P., No. 13, and A. O. U. W. Lodge No. 2, do extend to the bereaved wife and children of our late brother, our heartfelt sympathy in this, their hour of affliction; and also to remind them of the fact that to the true, faithful and brave, death means promotion and reward; and we further assure them that the loving care of a fraternal order will outlive them, and they will find consolation in the knowledge that our Redeemer liveth.

RESOLVED: That our charters be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family.

All wool and cloth hats positively half price at the Red House.

Don't envy your friend his stylish new hat; he bought it at the El Paso store.

Cattle buyers will do well to address Frank Smith, Arivechi, Sonora, Mexico.

Customs Inspector R. M. Catlett came in from Litchfield last Sunday on a visit to his family.

The family of Capt. L. W. Mix will leave in a few days for their winter home in Hermosillo.

Dr. A. A. Doherty's handsome new addition to his Avery avenue residence, is nearing completion.

Rev. E. H. Ashmun, Congregational superintendent of Arizona, will preach at the Congregational church Sunday.

G. J. Gonzalez, interpreter for the Sonora railway, has presented to the railroad library a set of the Universal History in five volumes.

Mr. F. G. Hermosillo, the well known commission merchant, arrived in Nogales Sunday from a business trip to the City of Mexico.

Dr. R. J. Hanch, inspector for the bureau of animal industry, was at Bisbee this week inspecting some cattle imported at that sub-port.

Episcopal services will be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock, and in the evening at 7:30 at the athletic club hall. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Ismael Padilla left last week for the City of Mexico on a business and pleasure trip. He has been ill of late and expects to consult a specialist before returning.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hanna, who has been visiting her old home in England for the past three months, returned to Nogales Sunday morning much improved in health.

Mr. Pablo Soto, brother of Mrs. W. F. Overton, formerly of Tucson, has accepted a responsible position in the big store of Proto Brothers. The VIDEtte welcomes Mr. Soto to Nogales.

Mr. Sam McCullar, than whom a better fellow does not live, returned from Cuba Wednesday. Mac says he had a nice trip but is glad to get back to Nogales.

Edward Perkins, an attorney of Colorado, Springs, Colo., was a visitor in Nogales for several days. Mr. Perkins left for Tombstone Tuesday evening and expect to return to Nogales before returning home.

The brickwork block on Morley avenue is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. This building when finished will be one of the most handsome and substantial in Nogales.

Doctor M. Iglesias, the specialist in blood diseases, has gone to Tucson, where he will remain about ten days, when he will return to Nogales. The doctor's fame has gone before him and we have no doubt he will do much good for himself and suffering humanity in Pima's capital.

Mr. John Gates, the popular mixer-drummer, made a flying trip to Richardson the forepart of the week. Jack says while hotel accommodations are not the best, street cars, electric light and water works are talked of. Mr. Gates got in on the ground floor and secured a corner lot within a stone's throw of the proposed court house.

The exhibition given last evening in "La Tertulia" saloon, by the Mexican billiardists, the Misses Fernanda, Luz and Clotilde, was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd of lovers of billiards. The ladies are expert players, and their execution with the cue and ivory was both entertaining and instructive.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a social next Monday evening, and invite everybody to attend. There will be a short musical and literary program in which both old and new favorites will participate. Among the exercises will be solos by Miss Christ and Mrs. Gordon, duet by Miss Christ and Mr. Gibbs, instrumental duet by Mr. and Mrs. Rickard, readings by Miss Birch and Mrs. Faulds. The ladies will serve light refreshments.

Perkins & Tonkin will soon receive a carload of groceries.

Perkins & Tonkin give you what you order and guarantee satisfaction.

Mr. Fred Sterling, of the N. M. & A. R. R., after three months spent in California, returned to Nogales this morning, greatly benefited by his summer outing.

Ex-Sheriff Joe Scott of Pima county, that old democratic war horse, than whom there are none more popular in Arizona, has been looking up mining property in Sonora the past two weeks. Joe has many warm friends in Santa Cruz county who are ever ready to extend to him the glad hand.

Perkins has all kinds of California fresh vegetables.

Wallace Morse, the debonair and efficient postal route agent between Nogales and Benson, arrived yesterday from a twinkling visit to Tampa. He says Marshal Compton is making things interesting for any hobos who may be found loitering within the area of that town—hence his hurried departure.

The best dressed men in town will be interested to know that Fleischer Brothers have received a large line of fall suits that are ready for their inspection. The goods are thoroughly up to date in every respect.

Complete lines of latest style Statton hats just received at Fleischer Bros.

The grand cake walk, ball and concert given last night by Professor Hichner in the Nogales Athletic club hall was a big success, both socially and financially. The professor has been well received in Nogales, where he has had a large class in dancing, each member of which speaks in the highest terms of his method of instruction in the art of dancing.

Mexican mining laws in English 50 cents at THE VIDEtte.

The Mexican Opera company at the Nogales opera house is playing to a full house nightly. They will appear again tonight and tomorrow night then go to Hermosillo, thence to Guaymas. The company is a good one and the theatre going people of the Line City are showing their appreciation of their merit by a liberal patronage. THE VIDEtte bespeaks for this excellent company a good business in our sister state.

Umbrellas recovered and repaired at Ross' Bicycle Repair Shop.

Earl Griswold for a long time connected with Wells-Fargo's office at this place, will leave tonight for Bisbee, Arizona, where he has accepted the responsible position of manager of the Wells Fargo office. While we are sorry to see Earl leave Nogales, we congratulate him upon his promotion and wish him all sorts of good luck in his new position which years of practical experience has well qualified him to fill, both with credit to his company and himself.

Perkins & Tonkin have the freshest and best California fruits and vegetables.
